

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of two children playing in a field. A girl in an orange dress and a boy in a blue shirt and brown shorts are holding hands and jumping joyfully. They are surrounded by several colorful balloons: a green one with spots, an orange one with hearts, a red one with a spiral, and a pink and white one with hearts. The background features a bright yellow sun, two birds flying, and a field of flowers. The overall mood is cheerful and celebratory.
